Present : Mr. Anupam Bhardwaj, Advocate for the appellant(s)

MAHESH GROVER, J.(ORAL)

This appeal is directed against the judgment of the learned Single Judge dated 19.1.2017. The appellant was engaged with the respondents from 1.7.1985 to 1.4.1986. With a grievance that his services were wrongly terminated, he raised an industrial dispute after 10 years i.e 1996 which dismissed but on the issue of wrongful termination a finding was recorded in appellant's favour. Since no relief was granted and the reference dismissed on the ground of delay it led to the filing of the writ petition which has now been dismissed and is cause of grievance to the appellant in the present appeal.

After hearing learned counsel for the appellant and perusing the impugned order, we do not find any reason to interfere. Concededly the appellant's services were dispensed with in 1986 after few months of his engagement with the respondents. Industrial dispute was raised after 10 when the engagement of the appellant is for few months. In this situation where the learned Single Judge has held the appellant dis-entitled to any reinstatement or compensation it cannot be construed to be an erroneous reasoning so as to warrant any interference.

Hence, instant appeal is hereby dismissed.
