

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

LPA No.1251 of 2017(O&M)

Date of Decision : 17th July, 2017

Gurmeet Singh Kalra

..... Appellant

Versus

State of Haryana and another

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ SHEKHAR ATTRI

Present : Mr. Parminder Singh, Advocate for the appellant.

MAHESH GROVER, J. (Oral)

After hearing the learned counsel for the appellant, we are not inclined to interfere. Learned Single Judge has noticed that there was sufficient valid reason given for transferring the appellant out of Chandigarh where he has been serving for the last six years. Transfer being an administrative Act, employer is always within his rights to evaluate the exigencies to transfer employee from one place to another. Therefore, we do not find it a fit case where the present jurisdiction can be exercised to answer the grievance of the appellant. However, it shall be open to the respondents to consider the prayer and the grievance of the appellant, if approached with such a prayer.

Dismissed.
