CHANDIGARH

LPA no. 1408 of 2017 (O&M)
Date of Decision : 04.08.2017

Surender and another

....Appellant(s)

Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondent(s)

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER
HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAJ SHEKHAR ATTRI

Present : Mr. Sumit Sangwan, Advocate for the appellants

MAHESH GROVER, J.(ORAL)

We do not find any reason to interfere with the impugned judgment as the grievance of the appellants is centred around their transfer which is an administrative exigency.

Learned counsel for the appellants contends that the appellants are having chronic ailment and in view of instructions they should not have been disturbed.

After hearing learned counsel for the appellants and noticing the fact that they are suffering from chronic ailments and have been transferred from Charkhi Dadri to Faridabad and Yamunanagar, we have no hesitation to conclude that this is a failing argument as the appellants would now be better equipped to deal with any medical exigency,

Faridabad and Yamunanagar being better equipped with medical facilities. Hence, instant appeal is hereby dismissed. However, the appellants are still at liberty to pursue their remedies with the respondents.
