MAHESH GROVER, J.(ORAL)

This appeal is directed against the judgment of the learned Single Judge dated 15.3.2017. In writ petition merely the order initiating inquiry against the appellant was questioned by him by stating that it is contrary to the principles of natural justice.

Learned Single Judge declined interference and we find no reason to interfere with the impugned judgment noticing that only disciplinary proceedings have been initiated against the appellant and no order adverse to him is on record. We also find that the appeal is totally frivolous and has resulted in sheer wastage of the time of the Court by the appellant who is well conversant with the law being a Clerk in Sessions
