MAHESH GROVER, J. (Oral)

After hearing the learned counsel for the appellant, we are of the opinion that the matter has simply been remanded back for consideration afresh. The grievance of the appellant that the competent authority will be influenced by such observation is not borne out from any observations of the learned Single Judge. In the order all he has said is that none of the concerns raised in the writ petition including documents in favour of respondents No.4 and 5 as also the nomination in favour of the appellant have not been considered by the competent authority.

Consequently, there is no merit in the appeal and the same is dismissed. The competent authority is directed to decide the matter afresh in accordance with law.
