MAHESH GROVER, J. (O&M)

The appellant has impugned the order dated 24.04.2017 passed by the learned Single Judge. In the writ proceedings he had claimed himself to be a whistle blower exposing the multi-crore scam in the MBBS admissions, which was dismissed by the Division Bench but cognizance of the matter taken suo motu whereafter the writ petition was renumbered and listed as per roster before the Single Judge. Allegations were made in the writ petition that he has raised a grievance inter alia against the State counsel who has been able to manage the affairs with the learned Single Bench and therefore he also made a prayer that he be permitted to be impleaded as an amicus. The prayer for being impleaded as Amicus was declined on the reasoning that it would be open to the court to seek assistance from a friend of the court as the court may deem necessary. Therefore, there would be no cause to interfere with the impugned judgment. In so far as the other prayer made by the appellant in CWP No.8257 of 2017 is concerned that was not maintainable at all. Rather the allegations made by the appellant about some state counsel managing the affairs with the Single Judge are scandalous and deserve to be dismissed outrightly.

During the course of hearing we have put the appellant to the contents and assertions of the appeal and also Annexures P-1 and A-1 appended to the paper-book where he has admitted to the contends made therein. Vide separate order of even date we have disposed of the contempt proceedings by holding him guilty and noticing his cantankerous behaviour and repeated brush with litigation which has resulted in sheer wastage of the time of court.

Dismissed.
