AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This appeal has been filed against the concurrent judgments of the courts below dismissing the suit filed by the appellant whereby he had challenged an order of punishment of stoppage of five increments with cumulative effect.

The appellant was working as a Constable when he had an altercations with a Head Constable and beaten him up. Alongwith criminal proceedings a departmental proceedings were initiated and he was ultimately inflicted the punishment as mentioned above.

Counsel for the appellant has argued that the appellant was acquitted. This fact had been considered by the appellate court who had noticed that the appellant has not been acquitted but was allowed to compound the offence.

Counsel for the appellant has further argued that the inquiry was not proper. This allegation has also been considered by both the courts below and it has been held that the due procedure was followed, the appellant was heard and the entire evidence considered.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, I regret my inability to agree with the arguments of counsel for the appellant.

Appeal is dismissed. No costs.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Civil Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
