Versus

Sushant Nanda ...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Naresh Gopal Sharma, Advocate for the applicant.

Mr. H.S. Randhawa, Advocate for
Mr. P.S. Ahluwalia, Advocate for the respondent.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

These two transfer applications bearing TA Nos. 743 and 781 of 2016 are being decided together, as both these applications are arising out of the same set of facts and between the same parties. However, for the facility of reference, facts are being culled out from TA No. 743 of 2016.

Applicant, by way of these two transfer applications under Section 24 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure (for short

TA No. 743 of 2016

TA No. 781 of 2016

'CPC'), seeks transfer of the petition under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, as well as petition under Sections 6 and 25 of the Guardian and Ward Act, 1890, titled as Sushant Nanda Vs. Shikha Nanda, filed by respondent husband from Dasuya, District Hoshiarpur to Nakordar, District Jalandhar.

Notice of motion was issued and learned trial court was directed to adjourn the case beyond the date fixed before this Court.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

It has gone undisputed between the parties that the applicant-wife, along with her three minor children, is staying with her parents at her parental village in District Jalandhar. Respondent-husband is not paying any amount of maintenance either for the applicant or for the minor children. Since applicant-wife is not having any regular source of income, she is dependent on her parents. Distance between Dasuya, District Hoshiarpur and Nakordar, District Jalandhar, is more than 80 Kms.

The only argument raised by the learned counsel for the respondent that respondent-husband is having apprehension, at the hands of the applicant-wife and her family members, has been duly considered but found misplaced and not worth acceptance.

After giving anxious consideration to the contentions raised and careful perusal of the record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that both these transfer applications have been found to be fit cases for ordering the transfer of abovesaid petitions from Dasuya, District Hoshiarpur to Nakordar, District Jalandhar. It is so said because all the abovesaid undisputed facts clearly go in favour of the applicant-wife and against the respondent-husband. In the circumstances of the cases, it will not only be inconvenient but would be very difficult for the applicant-wife to go from Nakordar, District Jalandhar to Dasuya, District Hoshiarpur, to pursue the litigation imposed on her by the respondent-husband. Convenience of the wife in transfer applications, like the cases in hand, arising out of a matrimonial dispute, is one of the relevant considerations. Further, distance between the two places, financial status of the wife, her source of income, her age as well as her responsibility for bringing up the minor children, are the relevant factors to be considered, while deciding the transfer applications like the present ones.

TA No. 743 of 2016

The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Civil Procedure Code is that the ends of justice demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever the Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of either of the parties, the social strata of the spouses and behavioural pattern, their standard of life antecedent to marriage and subsequent thereto and circumstances of either of the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at by the Courts, while deciding a transfer application.

The view taken by this Court also finds support from the following judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, as well as different High Courts, including this Court: -

1. Mrs. Maneka Sanjay Gandhi and another Vs. Miss Rani Jethmalani, AIR 1979 (SC) 468.

TA No. 781 of 2016

2. Dr. Subramaniam Swamy Vs. Ramakrishna Hegde, 1990 (1) SCC 4.

3. Neelam Kanwar Vs. Devinder Singh Kanwar, 2000 (10) SCC 589.

4. Sumita Singh Vs. Kumar Sanjay and another, AIR 2002 (SC) 396.

5. Mangla Patil Kale Vs. Sanjeev Kumar Kale, 2003 (10) SCC 280.

6. Fatema Vs. Jafri Syed Husain @ Syed Parvez Jafferi, AIR 2009 (SC) 1773.

7. Anjali Ashok Sadhwani Vs. Ashok Kishinchand Sadhwani, AIR 2009 (SC) 1374.

8. Kulwinder Kaur @ Kulwinder Gurcharan Singh Vs. Kandi Friends Education Trust and others, AIR 2008 SC 1333.

9. Nisha Vs. Dharmenda Pratap Singh Rathore, 2015 (3) All. LJ 168.

10. M.V. Rekha Vs. Sathya, 2011 (2) HLR 34.

11. Sneha Vs. Vinayak, 2013 ILR (Karnataka) 165.

12. Rimpal Vs. Balinder Kumar, 2010 (7) RCR (Civil) 286.

13. Anju Vs. Sanjay, 2011 (6) RCR (Civil) 112.

14. Komal Devi @ Komal Kumari @ Komal Rani Vs. Harbhajan Singh, 2012 (8) RCR (Civil) 84.

The relevant observations made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in para 14 of its judgment in Kulwinder Kaur @ Kulwinder Gurcharan Singh's case (supra), which can be gainfully followed in the present case, read as under: -

“Although the discretionary power of transfer of cases cannot be imprisoned within a strait-jacket of any cast-iron formula unanimously applicable to all situations, it cannot be gainsaid that the power to transfer a case must be exercised with due care, caution and circumspection. Reading Sections 24 and 25 of the Code together and keeping in view various judicial pronouncements, certain broad propositions as to what may constitute a ground for transfer have been laid down by Courts. They are balance of convenience or inconvenience to plaintiff or defendant or witnesses; convenience or inconvenience of a particular place of trial having regard to the nature of evidence on the points involved in the suit; issues raised by the parties; reasonable apprehension in the mind of the litigant that he might not get justice in the court in which the suit is pending; important questions of law involved or a considerable section of public interested in the litigation; interest of justice demanding for transfer of suit, appeal or other proceeding, etc. Above are some of the instances which are germane in considering the question of transfer of a suit, appeal or other proceeding. They are, however, illustrative in nature and by no means be treated as exhaustive. If on the above or other relevant considerations, the Court feels that the plaintiff or the defendant is not likely to have a fair trial in the Court from which he seeks to transfer a case, it is not only the power, but the duty of the Court to make such order.”

TA No. 743 of 2016

TA No. 781 of 2016

Again, deliberating on an identical issue, in the case of Dr. Subramaniam Swamy (supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court held as under: -

“The question of expediency would depend on the facts and circumstances of each case but the paramount consideration for the exercise of power must be to meet the ends of justice. It is true that if more than one court has jurisdiction under the

TA No. 743 of 2016

TA No. 781 of 2016

Code to try the suit, the plaintiff as dominus litis has a right to choose the Court and the defendant cannot demand that the suit be tried in any particular court convenient to him. The mere convenience of the parties or any one of them may not be enough for the exercise of power but it must also be shown that trial in the chosen forum will result in denial of justice. Cases are not unknown where a party seeking justice chooses a forum most inconvenient to the adversary with a view to depriving that party of a fair trial. The Parliament has, therefore, invested this Court with the discretion to transfer the case from one Court to another if that is considered expedient to meet the ends of justice. Words of wide amplitude- for the ends of justice- have been advisedly used to leave the matter to the discretion of the apex court as it is not possible to conceive of all situations requiring or justifying the exercise of power. But the paramount consideration must be to see that justice according to law is done; if for achieving that objective the transfer of the case is imperative, there should be no hesitation to transfer the case even if it is likely to cause some inconvenience to the plaintiff. The petitioner's plea for the transfer of the case must be tested on this touchstone.

(emphasis supplied)”

The above-said law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme has also been followed by this Court in order dated 16.03.2016 passed in TA No.945 of 2015 (Sushma and others Vs. Kapil @ Sahil Bansal) and TA No.797 of 2015

TA No. 743 of 2016

TA No. 781 of 2016

(Jagroop Kaur Vs. Varinder Singh Bhela @ Tony) which, in turn, were based on the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, as well as different High Courts, including this Court.

Reverting to the facts of the cases in hand and respectfully following the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court as well as different High Courts, including this Court, it is unhesitatingly held that applicant-wife is entitled for getting the abovesaid petitions transferred from Dasuya, District Hoshiarpur to Nakordar, District Jalandhar, so as to enable her to pursue the litigation without facing any undue hardship or harassment at the hands of the respondent-husband. It is the settled principle of law that justice is not only to be done but it should also appear to have been done. If the applicant wife is forced to go from Nakordar, District Jalandhar to Dasuya, District Hoshiarpur, it would amount to denial of justice to her. Thus, to strike a balance between the parties with a view to do complete and substantial justice and proceeding on a holistic view of the matter, this Court is of the considered view that it would be just and expedient to transfer the abovesaid petitions from Dasuya, District Hoshiarpur to Nakordar, District Jalandhar.

No other argument was raised.

Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the cases noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned, this Court is of the considered view that both these transfer applications deserve to be accepted and the same are hereby allowed. Both the abovesaid petitions filed by the respondent-husband are ordered to be transferred from Dasuya, District Hoshiarpur to Nakordar, District Jalandhar.

TA No. 743 of 2016

TA No. 781 of 2016

Accordingly, the learned District Judge, Hoshiarpur, is directed to send complete record of the abovesaid petitions to the learned District Judge, Jalandhar, at an early date but in any case within a period of one month from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

The learned District Judge, Jalandhar, is also directed to assign both the abovesaid cases to the learned court of competent jurisdiction at Nakodar, for an early decision, in accordance with law.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, both these transfer applications stand disposed of, however, with no order as to costs.
