versus
State of Punjab

Present: Mr. B.D. Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

This Court had granted leave to amend prayer clause and office was directed to carry out amendment within one week.

The difficulty expressed by the office appears to be bonafide and genuine since the draft of amendment that is to be pasted is required to be supplied by the counsel.

In that view of the matter, learned counsel for the petitioner agrees to supply the relevant prayer clause by way of amended slip which shall be accepted by the office and would be pasted at the relevant places. Needful be done within 15 days.
