CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Kapil Khanna, Advocate for the applicant.

Mr. Balram Singh, Advocate for the respondent.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

These two transfer applications are being disposed of, vide this common order, as both these cases are between the same parties and are arising out of matrimonial dispute.

Applicant-wife is seeking transfer of her petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 ('the Act' for short) titled as Baljit Kaur Vs. Jaswinder Lal from Kapurthala to SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr). Similarly, she is seeking transfer of petition under Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure ('Cr.P.C.' for short) from Phagwara, District Kapurthala to SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr).

Notice in TA No.370 of 2017 has been issued.

Notice in CRM-M No.15917 of 2017.

Mr. Balram Singh, Advocate accepts notice on behalf of the respondent and waives service.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

It has gone undisputed before this Court that the applicant-wife is living with her parents at Nawanshahr. Since the applicant-wife is not working, she is dependent on her parents. Respondent-husband is not paying any amount of maintenance to the applicant-wife. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the divorce petition under Section 13 of the Act as well as a petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. were filed at Kapurthala and Phagwara respectively, because of the advice tendered to her by the learned counsel at Kapurthala.

In view of the abovesaid undisputed fact situation of the case, this Court feels no hesitation to conclude that it is just and expedient to transfer the petition under Section 13 of the Act filed at Kapurthala as well as petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. filed at Phagwara, District Kapurthala to SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr). It is so said because all the abovesaid undisputed facts clearly go in favour of the applicant-wife and against the respondent-husband. In the circumstances of the case, it will not only be inconvenient but would be very difficult for the applicant-wife to go from SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr) to Kapurthala to pursue both the abovesaid litigations. Convenience of the wife in transfer applications, like the present one, arising out of a matrimonial dispute, is one of the relevant consideration. Further, distance between the two places, financial status of the wife, her source of income, her age as well as her responsibility for bringing up the minor child, are the relevant factors to be considered, while deciding the transfer applications like the present one.

The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Civil Procedure Code is that the ends of justice demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever the Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of either of the parties, the social strata of the spouses and behavioural pattern, their standard of life antecedent to marriage and subsequent thereto and circumstances of either of the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at by the Courts, while deciding a transfer application.

The view taken by this Court also finds support from the following judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, as well as different High Courts, including this Court: -

- 1. Mrs. Maneka Sanjay Gandhi and another Vs. Miss Rani Jethmalani, AIR 1979 (SC) 468.

15. Rimpal Vs. Balinder Kumar, 2010 (7) RCR (Civil) 286.

16. Anju Vs. Sanjay, 2011 (6) RCR (Civil) 112.

17. Komal Devi @ Komal Kumari @ Komal Rani Vs. Harbhajan Singh, 2012 (8) RCR (Civil) 84.

The relevant observations made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in para 14 of its judgment in Kulwinder Kaur @ Kulwinder Gurcharan Singh's case (supra), which can be gainfully followed in the present case, read as under: -

“Although the discretionary power of transfer of cases cannot be imprisoned within a strait-jacket of any cast-iron formula unanimously applicable to all situations, it cannot be gainsaid that the power to transfer a case must be exercised with due care, caution and circumspection. Reading Sections 24 and 25 of the Code together and keeping in view various judicial pronouncements, certain broad propositions as to what may constitute a ground for transfer have been laid down by Courts. They are balance of convenience or inconvenience to plaintiff or defendant or witnesses; convenience or inconvenience of a particular place of trial having regard to the nature of evidence on the points involved in the suit; issues raised by the parties; reasonable apprehension in the mind of the litigant that he might not get justice in the court in which the suit is pending; important questions of law involved or a considerable section of public interested in the litigation; interest of justice demanding for transfer of suit, appeal or other proceeding, etc. Above are some of the instances which are germane in considering the question of transfer of a suit, appeal or other proceeding. They are, however, illustrative in nature and by no means be treated as exhaustive. If on the above or other relevant considerations, the Court feels that the plaintiff or the defendant is not likely to have a fair trial in the Court from which he seeks to transfer a case, it is not only the power, but the duty of the Court to make such order.”

Again, deliberating on an identical issue, in the case of Dr.

Subramaniam Swamy (supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court held as under: -

“The question of expediency would depend on the facts and circumstances of each case but the paramount consideration for the exercise of power must be to meet the ends of justice. It is true that if more than one court has jurisdiction under the Code to try the suit, the plaintiff as dominus litis has a right to choose the Court and the defendant cannot demand that the suit be tried in any particular court convenient to him. The mere convenience of the parties or any one of them may not be enough for the exercise of power but it must also be shown that trial in the chosen forum will result in denial of justice. Cases are not unknown where a party seeking justice chooses a forum most inconvenient to the adversary with a view to depriving that party of a fair trial. The Parliament has, therefore, invested this Court with the discretion to transfer the case from one Court to another if that is considered expedient to meet the ends of justice. Words of wide amplitude- for the ends of justice- have been advisedly used to leave the matter to the discretion of the apex court as it is not possible to conceive of all situations requiring or justifying the exercise of power. But the paramount consideration must be to see that justice according to law is done; if for achieving that objective the transfer of the case is imperative, there should be no hesitation to transfer the case even if it is likely to cause some inconvenience to the plaintiff. The petitioner's plea for the transfer of the case must be tested on this touchstone.

The abovesaid law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme has also been followed by this Court in order dated 16.03.2016 passed in TA No.945 of 2015 (Sushma and others Vs. Kapil @ Sahil Bansal) and TA No.797 of 2015 (Jagroop Kaur Vs.Varinder Singh Bhela @ Tony) which, in turn, were based on the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, as well as different High Courts, including this Court.

Reverting to the facts of the case in hand and respectfully following the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court as well as different High Courts, including this Court, it is unhesitatingly held that applicant-wife is entitled for getting the petition under Section 13 of the Act filed at Kapurthala as well as petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. filed at Phagwara, District Kapurthala to SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr), so as to enable her to pursue the litigation without facing any undue hardship or harassment at the hands of the respondent-husband. It is the settled principle of law that justice is not only to be done but it should also appear to have been done. If the applicant-wife is forced to go from SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr) to Kapurthala, it would amount to denial of justice to her. Thus, to strike a balance between the parties with a view to do complete and substantial justice and proceeding on a holistic view of the matter, this Court is of the considered view that it would be just and expedient to transfer the petition under Section 13 of the Act filed at Kapurthala as well as petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. filed at Phagwara, District Kapurthala to SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr).

No other argument was raised.

Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the cases noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned, this Court is of the considered view that both these transfer applications deserve to be accepted and the same are hereby allowed. Petition under Section 13 of the Act titled as Baljit Kaur Vs. Jaswinder Lal filed at Kapurthala as well as petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. titled as Baljit Kaur Vs. Jaswinder Kumar filed at Phagwara, District Kapurthala are ordered to be transferred to SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr).

Accordingly, the learned District Judge, Kapurthala is directed to send complete record of both the abovesaid petitions to the learned District Judge, SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr) at an early date but in any case within a period of one month from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

The learned District Judge, SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr) is also directed either to decide the cases himself or assign it to the learned Court of competent jurisdiction, for their early decision, in accordance with law.

Parties through their counsel are directed to appear before the learned Court at SBS Nagar (Nawanshahr) on 07.07.2017.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, both these transfer applications stand disposed of, however, with no order as to costs.
