MAHENDER & ANR VS RAJBIR SINGH AND ANR

Present: Mr. S.S. Dinarpur, Advocate for the applicant/petitioner.

This is an application for review of order dated March 07, 2017, passed by this court.

Learned counsel has submitted that order needs to be reviewed in view of the grounds taken in the review application.

I have heard learned counsel for the applicant/petitioner and given careful thought to the facts of the case.

This court had disposed of the revision petition vide detailed order dated March 07, 2017. It had come to the conclusion that since plaintiffs executed two sale deeds in favour of defendants and now they are challenging the same, therefore, they are liable to pay ad valorem court fee. The court had, thus, dismissed the revision petition. Counsel for the applicant has not been able to make out any ground for reviewing the order. Application is hereby dismissed.
