

Harmohan Dhawan and another Vs. UT Chandigarh

Present: Mr.Satish Jaswal, Advocate for
Mr.P.C. Dhiman, Advocate for the applicants-appellants

Applicants seek review of the order dated 2.2.2016 passed by this Court and also seek condonation of delay of 315 days in filing the review application.

After hearing learned counsel for the applicants, both these applications have been found wholly misconceived. In fact, learned counsel for the applicants-appellants wants to reargue the appeal under the garb of these applications, which is not permissible in law. No ground for review is made out.

Both these applications stand dismissed.
