Learned counsel for the applicant-petitioners contends that this petition was wrongly tagged with the bunch matters and disposed of in terms of the judgement of A.P.Sharma's case. It is stated that A.P.Sharma's case pertains to refixation of pension of retirees who retired prior to 1.12.2011. Whereas, in the present petition, the question involve is relating to grant of full pension to Government employees who rendered minimum qualifying service of 25 years claiming that they are entitled to 50% of the emoluments or average emoluments received during the last 10 months, whichever is beneficial.

A perusal of the petition shows that infact the petition relates to retiral benefits treating 25 years of service as full service. Therefore, apparently, it was wrongly tagged with the bunch matters. Therefore, the order dated 16.2.2017 passed qua the present petition is recalled. The present petition is ordered to be de-tagged and listed as per Roster.

Review application is allowed.
