petitioner, who has apologised to her and assured that no such misbehaviour will take place in future and does not wish to pursue the above-noted FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

The petitioner who is present in Court and is identified by the learned counsel affirms the statement of respondent No.2 and further tenders his unqualified apology and assures that no such misbehaviour will take place in future with anybody. To show remorse he undertakes to deposit a cost of ₹25,000/-.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

Consequently, FIR No. 197/2015 under Sections 323/354/509 IPC registered at PS Naraina, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed subject to the petitioner depositing a sum of ₹25,000/- with the Juvenile Justice Fund maintained by the Registrar General of this Court within four weeks. Copy of the receipt will be placed on record of this Court.

Parties have signed this order sheet in acknowledgment of their statements made before this Court.
