CM Nos.2363-64/2017

1. By way of these applications, the petitioner seeks addition and deletion of the parties to the writ petition as well as amendment to the writ petition, which is not permissible.
2. In our view, the petitioner can file a separate writ petition.
3. In view thereof, Mr. K.K. Rohatgi, ld. counsel for the petitioner-applicants prays for leave to withdraw the writ petition as well as these applications with liberty to file a fresh writ petition arraying necessary parties to the writ petition.

4. Accordingly, the writ petition, these applications as well as pending applications are dismissed as withdrawn with leave as prayed for.
