been identified by the Investigating Officer. I have enquired from the complainant if she has settled the dispute with the petitioners amicably without any fear or pressure. She has informed that all the disputes between the parties have been resolved amicably with her free consent and she has no objection to the quashing of the FIR in question. Divorce by mutual consent has already been granted. Pursuant to the settlement, remaining amount of ₹55,000/- [₹20,000/- (by way of cheque bearing No.039588 dated 20.01.2017 drawn on Central Bank of India) and ₹35,000/- (in cash)] has been given to the complainant in the Court today.

3. The petition is supported by affidavits of the parties. Copy of settlement agreement dated 15.07.2015 has been placed on record. Since the dispute between the parties has been settled, no useful purpose will be served to continue with the proceedings. In the interest of justice and to enable the parties to settle in life after divorce, FIR No.830/2014 registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC at PS Tilak Nagar and all the proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

4. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
