Counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners were the tenants of the respondent No.2/complainant/landlord in House No.A-17, Gali No.1, Govind Vihar, near Shiv Shakti Mandir, Karawal Nagar, Delhi. Counsel further submits that the disputes and differences arisen between the parties resulted in the registration of an FIR No.4/2013, under Sections 323/354/342/34 IPC at Police Station Karawal Nagar, Delhi. Counsel for the petitioners further submits that after the registration of the FIR, the near relatives and friends intervened and the matter was amicably settled/sorted out between the parties and the same has been reduced into writing vide settlement deed dated 12.01.2016. Counsel further submits that now the

The respondent No.2/complainant is present in Court today and has been identified by the IO SI Inder Veer Singh, P.S. Karawal Nagar, Delhi. The respondent No.2/complainant admits the factum of amicable settlement with the petitioners and submits that all the differences between her and the petitioners have now been sorted out and nothing remains to be adjudicated further between them and further submits that the settlement reached between them is voluntary and without any force, pressure or coercion and she has no objection if the FIR is quashed.

Looking into the above facts and circumstances, since the matter has been amicably settled/compromised between the parties vide settlement dated 12.01.2016 and all the differences have been sorted out and nothing further remains to be adjudicated and to have better relations between the parties in near future, I deem it appropriate to quash the FIR in question.
