ARB.P. 117/2017

The learned counsel for the petitioner states that there is an arbitration clause in the agreements entered into between the parties which have not been produced. The said clause also does not find any reference in the petition as well as the petitioner has filed the present petition solely relying on the clause of the Memorandum of Association of the respondent company.

The petitioner seeks to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file afresh.

In view of the statement of the learned counsel that the separate agreements entered into between the petitioner and the respondent also contains an arbitration clause, the petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to the petitioner to apply afresh.
