1. The petitioner seeks anticipatory bail under Section 438 Cr.P.C. in case FIR No.2249/2015 registered under Sections 306/34 IPC at PS Malviya Nagar. Status report is on record.

2. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties including the complainant's counsel and have examined the file. By an order dated 08.02.2017, the petitioner was granted interim protection and was directed to join the investigation as and when required. Undisputedly, the petitioner has joined the investigation since then. Learned counsel for the complainant, on instructions, has informed that the matter has been settled and the complainant is residing at the matrimonial home.

3. The petitioner is the complainant's mother-in-law. It is informed that the complainant also registered an FIR under Sections 406/498A/34 IPC. No incriminating evidence was found against the petitioner and she was kept in column No.12 of the charge-sheet.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the complainant has opted to settle the dispute with the petitioner and she has joined the investigation, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and in the event of arrest, she be released on furnishing personal bond in the sum of ₹ 40,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the SHO/Investigating officer. She shall, however, join the investigation as and when required.

5. The bail application stands disposed of. Pending application also stands disposed of.
