

$~A-3

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ RC.REV. 112/2011

BHUSHAN LAL

..... Petitioner

Through Sh.Shivam, grandson of the petitioner in person versus

BATUK PRASHAD JAITLEY

..... Respondent

Through Mr.Rajat Aneja, Ms.Chandrika Gupta
& Ms.Nisha Sharma, Advocates

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAYANT NATH

ORDER

% 17.07.2017

Sh.Shivam, the grandson of Sh.Bhushan Lal, deceased is present in person in court and states that matter has been settled and the petitioner has handed over the physical possession of the tenanted premises to the respondent.

The learned counsel for the respondent also submits that the matter has been settled between the parties and a written settlement has been entered into between the parties.

Accordingly, the petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. Parties will remain bound by the settlement.

JAYANT NATH, J

JULY 17, 2017/v