The instant petition has been filed by the petitioners seeking quashing of FIR No.265/2003 for the offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at police station-Tilak Nagar, Delhi on the complaint of respondent No.2 and the proceedings pursuant thereto on the ground that a compromise/settlement has been arrived at between the parties in the matter.

Respondent No. 2 is present in Court today and is identified by the learned counsel and the Investigating Officer. She states that she has settled the matter with the petitioners in terms of Settlement Agreement dated 22.11.2014. She further submits that her husband has expired on 12.06.2015. She further submits that she does not wish to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Statements of the parties have been recorded separately.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences voluntarily and of their own free will and without any coercion, pressure, and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question. Consequently, FIR No.265/2003 for the offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at police station-Tilak Nagar, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

The petition is disposed of.
