1. Present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.60/2012 registered under Sections 498A/325/34 IPC at PS Dwarka North. It is stated that the matter has been settled amicably with the complainant / respondent No.2.

2. Complainant / respondent No.2 is present with counsel and has been identified by her counsel. I have enquired from the complainant if she has settled the dispute with the petitioners amicably without any fear or pressure. She has informed that all the disputes between the parties have been resolved amicably with her free consent and she has no objection to the quashing of the FIR in question. Pursuant to settlement, first motion has been granted in divorce proceedings with mutual consent and second motion is listed in July. It is informed that pursuant to the settlement, all the payments have been received by the complainant.

3. The petition is supported by affidavits of the parties. Since the disputes between the parties who are husband and wife have been settled, no useful purpose will be served to continue with the proceedings. In the interest of justice and to put an end to the litigation, FIR No.60/2012 registered under Sections 498A/325/34 IPC at PS Dwarka North and all the proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

4. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
