17.04.2017

The instant writ petition under Articles 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the petitioner for seeking parole for a period of three months.

Status report is on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is right now receiving sentence in FIR No.143/2010, P.S. Janak Puri, under Sections 363/376(2)(f) IPC since 26.07.2013. He further submits that the behavior of the petitioner in the jail is satisfactory. He also submits that the petitioner wants to file SLP before the Supreme Court against the order of this Court in the criminal appeal filed by the petitioner. He accordingly prays for grant of three months parole to the petitioner.

Learned proxy counsel on behalf of Additional Standing Counsel for State opposes the present application for granting of parole

Looking into the above facts and circumstances, since the petitioner wants to file SLP before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, the petitioner is ordered to be released on parole for a period of one month effective from the date of his release on the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner shall furnish personal bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Jail Superintendent concerned.
- (ii) He is further directed to report to the concerned SHO, Police Station- Janak Puri, Delhi on every Monday at 11:00 am during this period.
- (iii) He is also directed not to contact, threaten or coerce the victim or any of her family members during this period or to indulge in any illegal activities.
- (iv) He is also directed to furnish his contact number to the SHO concerned.
- (v) He is to surrender before the Superintendent Jail after the expiry of period of parole.

Petitioner be informed through the Superintendent Jail.

Copy of the order be also sent to SHO, Police Station-Janak Puri, Delhi & to the concerned Jail Superintendent for information.

Petition stands disposed of accordingly.

A copy of the order be given dasti to counsel for the petitioner.
