learned counsel and the Investigating Officer states that she has settled the matter with the petitioner in a composite settlement/compromise deed dated October, 2015. Copy of the composite settlement/compromise deed is annexed as Annexure –D from pages 103 to 117 of the paper-book. She states that she does not wish to pursue the above-noted FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

The petitioner who is present in Court and is identified by the learned counsel affirms the statement of respondent No.2 and states that he will abide by the terms of settlement arrived at between the parties.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

Consequently, FIR No. 1498/2014 under Sections 323/341/354/427 IPC registered at PS Malviya Nagar, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

Parties have signed this order sheet in acknowledgment of their statements made before this Court.
