RP No. 295/2017

Learned counsel for the review applicant submits that they and some other parties have preferred Special Leave Petitions before the Supreme Court and in some of the Special Leave Petitions notice has been issued. He seeks permission to withdraw the present application and states that grounds urged in the present review application would be raised by way of additional grounds in the Special Leave Petition, which has already been preferred.

In view of the statement made, the review application is dismissed as withdrawn. We do not comment on the merits.
