not be performed by the petitioner as he was in custody. He still has five exams left which are scheduled for 29th March, 31st March, 1st April and 11th April, 2017.

5. The learned Additional Sessions Judge dismissed the application of the petitioner on the ground that one of the witnesses of the present case namely Vipin Choudhary has been murdered. On a query put to the learned APP for the State whether the petitioner is one of the accused involved in the murder of Vipin Choudhary, learned APP on instructions submits that the petitioner has not been arrayed as an accused in the said case. Further the petitioner was earlier also granted interim bail for giving the first and second semester examinations from 30th November, 2016 to 24th December, 2016.

6. Considering the fact that the petitioner has to sit in the examination of B.A., second year and left over papers of second term of B.A., 1st year exams, this Courts deems it fit to grant interim bail to the petitioner. The petitioner be released on interim bail for a period of two weeks from the date of his release on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of ₹50,000/- with two sureties of the like amount, out of which one of the surety would be of a family member of the petitioner, subject to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court. During the period of grant of interim bail the petitioner will not go near the village of the victim nor influence any of the witnesses nor tamper with the evidence of the case.

7. Petition is disposed of. Order dasti.
