Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner No.1 Mr.Ankur Nag got married with respondent No.2, Ms.Ritu Sharma on 17.09.2010 according to Hindu rites and customs. He further submits that due to temperamental differences and misunderstanding arisen between them, the marital relations between them could not proceed further but consequently with the help of near relatives and close friends, they have amicably settled all their disputes and differences in Mediation Centre, Saket Courts, New Delhi vide settlement deed dated 22.12.2015 and their marriage has also been dissolved by mutual consent by a decree of divorce dated 11.11.2016 granted by the Principal Judge (South-East), Family Courts, Saket, New Delhi. He further submits that all disputes have been amicably settled between the parties and nothing remains to be adjudicated upon further and submits that the FIR in question is coming as hurdle in the way of the present petitioners. He further submits that the petitioners and the respondent No.2 want to lead their independent and peaceful life in near future and since all disputes have been settled between them, the FIR in question and all proceedings arising therefrom may be quashed.

The respondent No.2/complainant, Ms.Ritu Sharma is present in Court today and has been identified by the Investigating Officer, SI Gajender Singh, Police Station-CWC Nanakpura, Delhi. The complainant also admits that the matter has been amicably settled with the petitioners and as per the terms of settlement, she has already received Rs.2,10,000/- (Rupees Two Lakhs Ten Thousand Only) from the petitioners and nothing remains due against the petitioners.
