husband of the complainant FIR No.202/2016 has been registered against the petitioner and on the complaint of the petitioner FIR No.203/2016 has been registered against the husband of the complainant and other persons. Further on the complaint of the associates of the petitioner Ram Manohar Sharma, another FIR has also been registered against the husband of the complainant.

Considering the number of cross-cases registered against each party by the two factions, this Court deems it fit to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. It is therefore directed that in the event of arrest the petitioner be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of ₹25,000/- with one surety of the like amount subject to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer/ SHO concerned, further subject to the condition that the petitioner will join investigation as and when directed and will not leave the country without the prior permission of the Court concerned and in case of change of address the same will be intimated by way of an affidavit to the investigating officer and the Court concerned.

Petition is disposed of. Order dasti.
