disputes between the parties have been resolved amicably with her free consent and she has no objection to the quashing of the FIR in question. Divorce by mutual consent has already been granted. Pursuant to the settlement, all the payments have been received by the complainant. Costs ₹10,000/- imposed vide order dated 25.11.2016 has been given to the complainant present in person in the Court.

3. The petition is supported by affidavits of the parties. Copy of settlement agreement dated 22.08.2014 has been placed on record. Since the dispute between the parties has been settled, no useful purpose will be served to continue with the proceedings. In the interest of justice and to enable the parties to settle in life after divorce, FIR No.111/2010 registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC at PS Crime (Women) Cell and all the proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

4. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
