Crl. M.A. 6488/2017

Exemption allowed subject to all just exceptions.

Application stands disposed of.

BAIL APPLN. 702/2017

The petitioner seeks bail under Section 439 Cr.P.C. in case FIR No.182/2016, registered under Sections 307/506/34 IPC at Police Station Kalyan Puri.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person. He further submits that the investigation is complete and the charge-sheet has already been filed and the petitioner is not required for further investigation. He further submits that the victim has already been discharged from the hospital. He also submits that two injured witnesses have already been examined and the third injured witness has been partly examined. He further submits that there is no evidence qua against the present petitioner and the trial is going to take considerable time. He accordingly prays that the petitioner be released on bail.

On the other hand, learned APP for the State vehemently opposes the bail application, and submitted that two injured witnesses have already been examined and third witness is partly examined.

Looking into the above facts and circumstances, since the injured has already been discharged from the hospital and most of the material witnesses have already been examined and trial is likely to take considerable time, in these circumstances I admit the petitioner on bail on his furnishing bail bond in the sum of Rs.20,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Trial Court, with the further condition that he shall not tamper the prosecution evidence and that he shall not leave the Country without prior permission of the Court below.

This order shall not have any effect on the merit of the trial and the case.

The present bail application is allowed and disposed of accordingly.

Copy of this order be given dasti, as prayed.
