He further submits that the marriage between the parties has already been dissolved by mutual consent by a decree of divorce dated 21.12.2016 granted by the Principal Judge, Family Courts, Tis Hazari Courts, Delhi. He further submits that as per the terms of settlement, the last amount due to be paid to the respondent No.2 is Rs.1,50,000/- and the same has been paid today by way of FDR amounting to Rs.1,00,000/-, dated 27.02.2017, drawn on Punjab National Bank & demand draft amounting to Rs.40,000/-, bearing No.681421, dated 03.02.2017, drawn on Punjab National Bank and Rs.10,000/- in cash and that nothing remains to be adjudicated upon further. He also submits that the FIR in question is coming as hurdle in the way of the present petitioners. He further submits that the petitioner No.1 and the respondent No.2 want to lead their independent and peaceful life in near future and since all disputes have been settled between them, the FIR in question and all proceedings arising therefrom may be quashed.

The respondent No.2/complainant is present in Court today and has been identified by the Investigating Officer, S.I Sanjay Kaushik. The complainant also admits that the matter has been amicably settled with the petitioners. She further submits that as per the terms of settlement she has received last instalment of Rs.1,50,000/- by way of aforementioned modes. She further submits that the settlement/compromise has taken place voluntarily, without any force, pressure or coercion. She further submits that their marriage has already been dissolved by mutual consent by a decree of divorce and she has no objection, if the FIR in question is quashed.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and also the marriage between the petitioner No.1 and respondent No.2 has already been dissolved by mutual consent by a decree of divorce, it is in their interest to lead their independent and peaceful life in future.
