ORDER

26.04.2017

After some hearing, ld. Counsel for the parties agreed that the impugned order dated 14.7.2016 to the extent it directs that the appellant would deposit Rs.88,36,129/- with the Registrar General of this Court, may be set aside without making any observation on merits. The parties have agreed to make the said statements in view of the fact that no reasons or grounds have been given in the said order why the appellant should make the said deposit with the Registrar General.

Counsel for the parties state that the objections filed by the appellant are pending consideration before the Ld. Single Judge.

The appeal is allowed in the aforesaid terms without making any observation or recording findings on merits. To cut short the delay, parties are directed to appear before the Ld. Single Judge on the date already fixed, when the application for stay filed by the appellant would be taken up for hearing. The respondent is given liberty to file reply to the application for stay within one week. Rejoinder, if any, would be filed within one week after reply is filed.
