ORDER

11.07.2017

Learned counsel for the appellant states that he has taken instructions in terms of order dated 21.07.2016 passed by this Court. He submits that since the mandatory deposit in the present case is Rs.57,029/- along with interest at the rate of 5%. The respondent has already retired in the year 2006.

The appellant does not wish to press the present appeal and wants to withdraw the same. He, however, states that the question of law raised in the present appeal be left open and the impugned judgment should not be treated as a binding precedent on the appellant so as to affect other cases in which the appellant is involved. The submission is fair and reasonable.

Accordingly, the present appeal is dismissed as withdrawn. It is made clear that the impugned order dated 30.01.2015 passed in W.P.(C) No.578/2001 shall not be a binding precedent on the appellant.
