The petitioner has moved the present anticipatory bail application u/s 438 Cr PC in case FIR 1179/2015 u/s 394/323/341/506 IPC registered at PS Mehrauli. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the complainant and the petitioner are relatives. It is stated that the disputes arose between them in relation to a family matter which has led to the registration of the FIR.

The parties have arrived at a settlement. The complainant Vipin Kumar is also present in court and states that a settlement has been reached.

There are other cases as well registered against the petitioner which also arise from the family disputes.

The accused is present in court and he has been counselled to mend his ways. He is a young person and if he does not mend his ways, he will ruin his life and will bring disrepute to himself and his family. He feels remorseful and has assured the court that he will not take the law into his own hands.

In view of the aforesaid, the application is allowed. In case of his arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon his furnishing personal bond with one surety in the sum of Rs.10,000/- to the satisfaction of the arresting officer/ IO. This is further subject to the condition that he shall not threaten or coerce the complainant or tamper with the evidence. He shall not indulge in any other criminal activity.

The application stands disposed of.
