ORDER

% 15.05.2017

The petitioner, who is an accused in a NDPS case, seeks interim bail for the purposes of attending to his wife who, it was stated earlier, was to be operated on 17.05.2017 in Rao Tula Ram Memorial Hospital.

The aforesaid fact has been verified and a report has been handed over by Dr. M.P. Singh, learned APP which suggests that the operation is now to be performed on 18.05.2017.

Taking into account that the petitioner was earlier granted interim bail for the aforesaid purpose but the wife of the petitioner could not be operated upon as she was not medically fit for operation earlier, this court is inclined to release the petitioner on interim bail for the aforesaid purpose.

Let the petitioner be released on interim bail for a period of 7 days, to be counted from the date of his release, coinciding with the date of the operation of the wife of the petitioner, on his furnishing a bond in the sum of

Rs.10,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Trial Court, subject to the following conditions:-

- e) The petitioner shall surrender before the jail authorities on or before the expiry of the said period of interim bail.
- f) The petitioner shall not engage himself in any unlawful activity.
- g) The petitioner would not leave, under any circumstance, the National Capital Territory of Delhi.
- h) He shall furnish his mobile telephone number and the mobile telephone number of his surety to the SHO of the concerned police station so that in case of necessity he could be tracked and his whereabouts could be ascertained.

In case, the petitioner flouts any one of the conditions, an application could be moved by the SHO for cancellation of her interim bail and for taking of coercive steps for securing her attendance.

Immediately after the period of interim bail is over, the petitioner is required to surrender before the jail authorities. Any delay on the part of the petitioner shall be viewed seriously.

The petition is disposed of.

A copy of the order be given dasti under the signature of the Court Master.
