CRL.M.C. 3346/2017

Statement of Ms. Mohini Miglani D/o Sh. Satish Miglani R/o 51/1 Anand Vihar, Kuldeep Nagar, Nanhera Village, Ambala, Haryana.

On S.A.

FIR No. 54/2014 under Sections 307/309 IPC was registered at police station Qutub Minar Metro on my complaint on 23rd July, 2014. Petitioner-Amit Chuahan was known to me as we both had studied in the same engineering college. Petitioner had completed his M-Tech. We were friends. Petitioner had been asking me to marry him. On 23rd July, 2014 we were together for quite some time. Altercations took place between me and petitioner. I intended to settle abroad and I told this fact to the petitioner. We had taken metro train from Kashmere Gate at about 8:25 am and went to Rajiv Chowk Metro Station. Thereafter, we boarded the metro train for M.G. Road Metro Station, however, we got down at Chattarpur Metro Station as we had some heated arguments. We were standing at Chattarpur Metro Station where a train was coming at the platform and we both fell down on the railway track as petitioner thought that I was trying to jump. He tried to hold me and in the process both of us tumbled down and fell on the track. At that time, I thought that petitioner tried to push me but later on,

I have realised, after discussions with him, that he was under the impression that I was trying to commit suicide and for that reason petitioner put his hand around my waist and hold me and in that process both of us fell down on the railway track.

Presently, I am in Australia and pursuing my masters in Bio-technology from there. The statement, contained in the FIR, was made by me out of some confusion and what I perceived at that time. I do not wish to pursue the FIR any further having come to know about the true facts and the FIR may be quashed.

I have made the above statement out of my own free will and without any undue force, pressure or coercion.

Complainant-Ms. Mohini Miglani was my friend. We had studied in the same engineering college. I have completed my M-Tech. We were good friends and I proposed her, however, she was interested in going abroad. On 23rd July, 2014, we were together in metro train for about 4-5 hours and ultimately, we reached at Chattarpur Metro Station. We had some altercations on the issue of her leaving me and going to Australia. Complainant was standing at the edge of platform at Chattarpur Metro Station where a train was coming at the platform. I thought that she would commit suicide because of the altercations took place between us, therefore, I put my hand at her waist in order to protect her but in that process both of us tumbled down and fell on the railway track. Subsequently, I explained my position to the complainant who is now in Australia. I had also no intention to commit suicide. I undertake that I will not keep any contact with her in future.
