complainant if she has settled the dispute with the petitioner amicably without any fear or pressure. She has informed that all the disputes between the parties have been resolved amicably with her free consent and she has no objection to the quashing of the FIR in question. Divorce by mutual consent has already been granted. Pursuant to the settlement, remaining amount of ₹5 lacs by way of demand draft bearing No.012762 dated 09.03.2017 drawn on IDBI Bank has been given to the complainant in the Court today; copy of which has been placed on record.

3. Trial Court record has been perused. Charge under Section 498A IPC has been framed against the petitioner only by an order dated 14.02.2013. Statement of the complainant has been recorded partly. No further witness has been examined.

Since the dispute between the parties has been settled, no useful purpose will be served to continue with the proceedings. In the interest of justice and to enable the parties to settle in life after divorce, FIR No.177/2009 registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC at PS Hari Nagar and all the proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

5. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
