ORDER

% 15.05.2017

The petitioners seek anticipatory bail under Section 438 Cr.P.C. in case FIR No.343/2016, under Sections 452/308/323/34 IPC, registered at Police Station-Anand Parbat, Delhi.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that the petitioners are innocent and have no nexus with the FIR in question. He further submits that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital. He further submits that the petitioners have already joined investigation and nothing is to be recovered at the instance of the petitioners and the petitioners are not required for custodial investigation. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to join further investigation as and when required and prays that the petitioners be granted anticipatory bail.

Learned APP for the State vehemently opposes the bail application. However, the learned APP on instructions from the Investigating Officer admits that the petitioners have joined the investigation.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioners are directed to join the investigation and in the event of their arrest, they be released on bail, on their furnishing personal bond in the sum of Rs.20,000/- each with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the SHO/Investigating officer concerned with the condition that the petitioners shall not influence the prosecution witnesses; the petitioners shall not tamper the prosecution evidence and the petitioners should not leave India without prior permission of the Court below.

The present bail application is allowed and disposed of accordingly.

Copy of this order be given dasti.
