Mr. Rajesh Mahajan, learned Additional Standing Counsel has informed this court that the telephone numbers of two of the functionaries of the concerned police station have been provided to the petitioners and those functionaries have also been sensitized about the issue of the petitioners marrying against the wishes of their respective parents.

Needless to state that in case of any distress call by the petitioners, the same shall be responded by the police authorities and, as in duty bound, they shall provide all protection to the petitioners in case of any emergent need.

With these observations, the present writ petition is disposed of.
