The instant petition has been filed by the petitioners seeking quashing of FIR No.186/2014 registered under Sections 380/381/454/411/34/120-B IPC at PS Defence Colony, New Delhi on the complaint of respondent No.2 and the proceedings pursuant thereto on the ground that a compromise/settlement has been arrived at between the parties in the matter.

Respondent No. 2 is present in Court today and is identified by the learned counsel and the Investigating Officer. He states that he has settled the matter with the petitioners with his own free will and choice without any threat, pressure for a total settlement amount of Rs.53,000/-. He further states that he has already received the amount of Rs.53,000/- from the petitioners. He further states that he has no claim whatsoever remaining against the petitioners and does not wish to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Statements of the parties have been recorded separately.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences voluntarily and of their own free will and without any coercion, pressure, and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question. Consequently, FIR No.186/2014 registered under Sections 380/381/454/411/34/120-B IPC at PS Defence Colony, New Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

The petition is disposed of.
