% ORDER
27.07.2017

CRL.M.A. 11992/2017

1. Exemption allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. Application stands disposed of.

BAIL APPLN. 1441/2017

1. This is an application moved on behalf of the petitioner praying for grant of interim bail on the ground of taking care of his wife who is seriously ill.
2. Notice. Learned APP for the State accepts notice.
3. The application seeking interim bail moved by the petitioner has been dismissed by the learned ASJ vide order dated 9th June, 2017 observing as under:-

'It is observed that though the medical documents of the wife of the applicant have been verified, but this Court has not been convinced that there is no one in the family of the applicant to look after her. In the reply, it is mentioned that the family of the applicant consists of father, mother and one married sister. Moreover, it is not the case that there is no one in the parental family of the wife of the applicant to look after her.

Further, it is observed that as many as 18 cases were registered against the applicant between 2012 to 2015 in different police stations in Delhi and Haryana and these cases were pertaining to serious offences like, murder, attempt to murder, extortion, robbery, etc. In view of this, this Court finds force in the submissions of the ld. Additional PP that in case he is released on bail, there is apprehension that he may flee from the Court proceedings.

In view of above, this Court is not inclined to grant relief of bail to the applicant. Accordingly, the bail application is dismissed.'

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be permitted to withdraw this application with liberty to approach the Court if necessity arises in view of the medical condition of his wife.
5. Accordingly, the bail application is dismissed as withdrawn granting the liberty as prayed for.
6. As prayed, copy of the order be given dasti to learned counsel for the petitioner.
