Petitioner who is present in Court and is identified by the investigating officer states that due to sudden quarrel the incident took place and he assures that in future no such incident will take place and to show remorse he undertakes to deposit a sum of ₹5,000/- with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee within four weeks.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

Consequently, FIR No. 339/2017 under Sections 307 IPC registered at PS Punjabi Bagh, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed subject to the petitioner abiding by his undertaking of depositing a sum of ₹5,000/- with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee within four weeks.
