

13# $~

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ BAIL APPLN. 1624/2017

MOHD AABID

..... Petitioner

Represented by: Ms. Ananya Roy, Advocate.

versus

STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI

..... Respondent

Represented by: Ms. Meenakshi Chauhan, APP
for the State with SI R.S. Dagar, PS Amar Colony.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE MUKTA GUPTA

ORDER

% 23.11.2017

BAIL APPLN. 1624/2017 and Crl. M.B. No. 1660/2017 (interim bail)

1. The petitioner seeks regular bail as well as interim bail on the ground that he has to maintain social ties as well as marital ties as his wife has left the matrimonial home.
2. The petitioner has been in custody in this case since 10th September, 2016 and is in judicial custody in three more cases. The petitioner is involved in as many as 38 cases and is a bad character of PS Amar Colony, South East District.
3. Considering the allegations in the FIR wherein it is stated that the petitioner fired from his pistol on the leg of the complainant and managed to escape and the involvements of the petitioner, this Court is neither inclined to grant interim bail nor regular bail to the petitioner.
4. Petition and application are dismissed.

MUKTA GUPTA, J.

NOVEMBER 23, 2017/'vn'