%

After some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner on instructions gives up the challenge to the impugned order and seeks permission to withdraw the present petition. However, he submits that the costs imposed upon the petitioner may be waived since the petitioner has moved the Original Application bona fide.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the impugned order, while dismissing the petition as withdrawn, the costs imposed upon the petitioner by the Tribunal, stand waived.

The writ petition is disposed of in the above terms.
