Record has been produced. The petitioner has secured two marks in the Maths paper and 12 marks in the Science paper, substantiating the stand of the respondent that the petitioner has failed in two of the subjects. The original record has been returned back to the respondent No. 1.

None has appeared for the petitioner. Matter has been called twice. Petitioner is obviously not interested in prosecuting this case.

Dismissed in default as also for non-prosecution as also on merits.
