Exemption granted, subject to all just exceptions.

Application stands disposed of.

BAIL APPLN. 1535/2017

This is an application under Section 439 Cr.P.C. filed on behalf of the petitioner seeking grant of regular bail in case FIR No.90/2017, under Sections 420/406/120-B/34 IPC, registered at Police Station-Ambedkar Nagar, Delhi.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and allegations alleged in the aforesaid FIR is false. He has further submitted that the petitioner is a poor person and has clean antecedents. Counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 03.07.2017 and not required for further investigation in the present case. He has further submitted that trial is not likely to conclude in near future and the continued incarceration of the petitioner will not serve any purpose and prays that the petitioner be released on regular bail.

On the other hand, learned APP for the State has vehemently opposed the bail application and has submitted that the petitioner is the main accused who has received Rs.4,30,000/- and gave false assurances of appointment in NDMC and also issued fake appointment letter.

Looking in the above facts and circumstances, since the investigation has already been completed and the petitioner is stated to be in judicial custody since 03.07.2017, no purpose would be served if the petitioner is kept in judicial custody as the trial is likely to take some time, consequently, the petitioner is granted bail on his furnishing a bail bond in the sum of Rs.20,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the concerned Court below with the condition that he shall not influence the prosecution witnesses; he shall not contact, threaten or coerce the victim or any of his/her family members or to indulge in any illegal activities; he shall not tamper the prosecution evidence and he should not leave India without prior permission of the Court below.

The present bail application is disposed of accordingly. However, this order shall not affect the merit of the case.

Copy of the order be given dasti, as prayed.
