1. It has been brought to my notice that though the appeal was listed on February 10, 2017 and disposed of on the same day, the date of decision has been wrongly typed as January 10, 2017 on the first and last page of the judgment.
2. This being a typographical error, necessary correction in the original judgment itself has been carried out and initialled today.
3. The judgment with necessary correction in respect of date of decision be uploaded on Delhi High Court website.
