Crl. M.C.No.3448/2017

The instant petition has been filed by the petitioners seeking quashing of FIR No. 477/2012 for the offences punishable U/s 498A/506 IPC registered at police station-Shakarpur, Delhi on the complaint of respondent No.2 and the proceedings pursuant thereto on the ground that a compromise/settlement has been arrived at between the parties in the matter.

Respondent No. 2 is present in Court today and is identified by the learned counsel. She states that she has settled the matter with the petitioner and today she has received a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only) through a Demand Draft No.611103 dated 24.07.2017 drawn on Punjab

National Bank, Bank Street, Karol Bagh, New Delhi-110005. She states that she has no claim whatsoever remaining against the petitioner and does not wish to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. Statements of the parties have been recorded separately.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences voluntarily and of their own free will and without any coercion, pressure, and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question. Consequently, FIR No. 477/2012 for the offences punishable U/s 498A/506 IPC registered at police station-Shakarpur, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

The petition is disposed of.
