3. This medical document has been verified by the State and status report has been filed in this regard.
4. Considering the certificate, the status report, that no date for surgery was fixed, opinion that the patient does not require any special treatment and can be treated in any government hospital, in Delhi and since the treatment for the ailment can be given effectively in Tihar Jail this Court finds no ground to extend the term of bail.
5. Petition is dismissed.
