15.09.2017

It is pointed out that the limited ground urged in this appeal is that the learned Single Judge despite noticing that the provisions of Section 25 F(c) of The Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 have not been complied with and further noticing that the pleadings in that regard did not support arguments, proceeded to render findings. It is submitted therefore that the appellant / workman may be permitted to withdraw the present appeal with liberty to pursue remedy in accordance with law under The Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

Liberty granted. This appeal and pending application are accordingly dismissed as withdrawn.
